April's Builder Theme – “I am a builder when I face obstacles with determination and positivity”

J.K. Rowling, author of the Harry Potter books, is currently the second-richest female entertainer on the planet, behind Oprah. However, when Rowling wrote the first Harry Potter book in 1995, it was rejected by twelve different publishers. Even Bloomsbury, the small publishing house that finally purchased Rowling's manuscript, told the author to "get a day job."

At the time when Rowling was writing the original Harry Potter book, her life was a self-described mess. She was going through a divorce and living in a tiny flat with her daughter. Rowling was surviving on government subsidies, and her mother had just passed away from multiple sclerosis. J.K. turned these negatives into a positive by devoting most of her free time to the Harry Potter series. She also drew from her bad personal experiences when writing. The result is a brand name currently worth nearly $15 billion.

Dear American Prep Families,

Thank you to the many families who have honored teachers and staff on our “Wall of Thanks”. We have hung 475 stars in the campuses so far and the number is growing! It is exciting to see our students checking the wall to find the stars they have given to our teachers. We would like to reach a goal of 1000 stars over the next few weeks.

Recognize our SUPER STAR STAFF on American Preparatory Education Foundation’s “Wall of Thanks”

With a $5 donation to the Staff Appreciation Fund, honor a teacher/staff member with a star from your family.

Donate as many times as you’d like. Each $5 donation honors another teacher/staff member.

Many families expand their support of our SUPER STAR STAFF by joining the Builders Club as a RECURRING donor. Recurring monthly donors will receive 5 stars for the “Wall of Thanks”!

Please visit the website or donate at the front office.

- Driver chaperones must bring their own lunch (rather than purchasing at the destination) so that they can stay with their group.
- All students must have their own working seatbelt.

Carpool Map

Please click on the link below and look to see if there are some carpools you can form. Remember, the more carpools we have, the fewer cars we will have in our carpool lanes. That makes carpool go quickly and much smoother. Students may be dropped off each morning beginning at 7:45 am and MUST be picked up by 4:00 pm Monday, Tuesday and Friday and 3:00 pm Wednesday and Thursday.

Love and Logic

Insider's Club

Is "I'm Sorry" Enough?

I'm asked quite often, "When my child misbehaves or causes a problem for someone, he's quick to say, 'I'm sorry.' Is that enough, or should he have a consequence?"

Common sense tells us that actions speak louder than words. That's why it's important that our kids do more than just apologize. Let's take a look at an example:

Parent: This is so sad. You rode your bike right through Mrs. Wilson's flowers. What are you going to do?

Child: Uh.....say 'I'm sorry'?

Parent: That's a great start! What can you do to show her that you are sorry?

Child: I don't know.

Parent: Would you like to hear some ideas?

Child: What?

Parent: Some kids decide to buy some new flowers and plant them for her. How would that work?

Child: I don't have any money.

Parent: Other kids ask their parents to buy some new flowers, and they pay their parents back by doing lots of extra chores. Let me know what you decide. Good luck.

That's Love and Logic.

Thanks for reading! Our goal is to help as many families as possible. If this is a benefit, forward to a friend.
