NEW: FSO News and Events

A LOOK AHEAD:

* Mark your calendars NOW for our free April CommUNITY Event. It will be held here at the school on Saturday, April 23, 2022 at 1:00 PM. Samba Fogo, a Cultural Arts Organization inspired by the excitement and beauty of Brazilian music and dance, will come to perform and provide us with some interactive experiences. Shout out to our very active grandparent volunteer, Ellen Folke, and our Second Grade AST Team for their efforts in putting this event together.

* Parent Teacher Conferences will be held April 14 & 15 and this gives the FSO another opportunity to provide two meals to Teachers and Staff. Be watching for a SignUp Genius for ways you can help! Our Sixth Grade AST's will be leading this opportunity.

* We will need LOTS of volunteers to help put on a super fun Field Day. This is one event that our children look forward to each year. Watch for details coming soon.

REFLECTION:

* Staff Appreciation Week (SAW) was a great success due to collective efforts by our FSO, Parent Donations, APEF and the APA District. We put together this little video to share some of the highlights from the week: SAW

We would like to thank the following for generously helping by: 1) decorating a door, 2) providing a week full of meals, treats, drinks, and/or 3) donating a total of $2,070 that went towards a $25 Amazon Gift Cards for every Teacher and Instructor, a $10 SWIG Gift Card for every member of our Staff, a cute little succulent plant, and other food items from Costco/Sam's Club for the meals provided, 4) A Spirit Wear Shirt for the entire staff, and 5) a new, retractable lanyard for all staff members.
